DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claim 20 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 20 recited a method in the preamble, but does not recite any method steps. This claim has been treated as a road system, in accordance with the parent claims.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 11-20 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Lee (WO 01/94702).

Looking to Figure 2, Lee discloses a multi-level road system. Each of the levels have a similar width and are arranged in a grid pattern. Regarding the intended use limitations (i.e., "for motor vehicles" and "for non-motor vehicles"), this adds no patentable weight to the road system because it is known that both motorized and non-motorized vehicles use roadways. Further, it is noted that even if a road is designated for use by one of motorized or non-motorized vehicles, actually using the road by the other type of vehicle on this road does not affect the configuration (i.e., patentable structure) of the system.

Regarding the extensive use of the term "and/or" in the claims, note that this term has been treated broadly as "or," since the presence of only a single one of the options is sufficient to meet claim recitations.

There is a ramp.

Lee discloses sidewalks.

Regarding the general terms of "turnaround passageway," "minor arterial," "U-turn road," "special ramp," etc., note that there are no structural recitations with regard to any of these terms. Because three orthogonal road segments in Lee would create a U shape, this broadly meets U-turn road and turnaround passageway, for example. Similarly, there is nothing recited which distinguishes a minor arterial or a special ramp from another arterial or any other ramp, respectively. For these reasons, these limitations are met by Lee.

Vehicles could travel in a manner within the scope of claim 20 recitations.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed 02 December 2008 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. The arguments are directed toward the differences between the present invention and the prior art with respect to the general configurations and these differences are noted; however, as discussed in the non-final Office action and again above, these differences simply are not recited in the claims. For example, the presence of additional levels in Lee still meets the recitation of a "double-layer" since the claim recites "comprising" and not "consisting of." In other words, two layers (i.e., double layer) are present in a system having three or more layers. The claim language does not prevent additional layers from being present, since the term used in the preamble is "comprising." In order to overcome the 102(b) rejection, structure not present in the prior art must be distinctly recited in the claims.

The 112 2nd rejections have not been addressed. While the claim continues to be treated as a structure and not a method, it is still indefinite.

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
